SO-CALLED "bargains" mean nothing until you analyze what you get for what you pay. Some "bargains" ought to carry with them a payment to the purchaser to take them out of the store.

Regal Shoes at $2.95 mean something to every woman capable of judging standards of value, because the established price of Regal Shoes to everybody, everywhere, from New York to San Francisco, are $4.00 and $5.00.

If you're looking for a bargain without quotation marks, a value in the truest sense of that frayed-out word, now and here you can buy a standard, guaranteed five-dollar or four-dollar Regal Shoe at $2.95.

REVISION IN CHARGES NEEDED.

I. C. C. Rules Regarding Terminal Situation at New York City.

Thorough revision of the terminal charges and practices of the railroads serving New York city are declared necessary in a decision just rendered by the interstate commerce commission. Reduction of free storage time for inbound New York freight on the New Jersey side and an increase in storage charges after the free time ends were approved. Similar changes on other inbound freight were disapproved. A charge of 12 cents a ton when a railroad handles freight at a pier other than the Eastland pier was disapproved. To allow that increase, the commission said, would add approximately $100,000 to the cost of materials for the new subway.
